5th Annual TCCF Santa's Workshop a Success

COLBY, Kan. (December 4, 2010) - The Thomas County Community Foundation hosted the fifth annual TCCF Santa's Workshop this past Saturday, December 4. Over 90 preschool to 4th grade children celebrated the Christmas spirit by taking the opportunity to buy Christmas gifts for their loved ones "all by themselves" with the help of a friendly elf. TCCF noted that nearly 440 gifts were sold resulting in over $1,750 raised, all of which will benefit local Thomas County charities. These gifts, many with a "homemade touch" were donated from area businesses and individuals to TCCF.

Eighteen adult volunteers, including six RSVP workers, also enjoyed in the festivities on Saturday as elves, wrappers, and registration table workers. "This was once again a wonderful and fun-filled event for all who were involved. The TCCF board and staff wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all who helped in the success of this Santa's Workshop, whether it be donations of presents or lending a helping hand at the event," stated Melinda Olson, director of the Thomas County Community Foundation.

A TCCF Shopper Elf assists an excited shopper with selecting the perfect gift at the TCCF Santa's Workshop.
